Some More Musical Riddles

These riddles will test how good a musical detective you are.

Wondering what to do? Just follow these instructions

- Work out the answer to each clue in the riddle except the last (it will be a single letter)
- Write the letter on the correct dotted line beside the final clue
- If you've worked out each clue correctly you will find a word which is the answer to the final clue in the riddle

Are you ready? Off you go!

1 The major key with two sharps
2 The fifth note of that scale
3 The first letter of the sign which cancels out a sharp or flat
4 The second sharp in a key signature
5 The third note of C major scale

	1	2	3	4	5
Whole word: What you can do at a disco
	.....	**.....	**.....	**.....	**.....

1 The dominant of F major scale
2 The first letter of the music alphabet
3 The first letter of the brass instrument which sometimes uses the tenor clef
4 The first letter of a jazz instrument which is not a standard orchestral instrument

	1	2	3	4
Whole word: Musical by Andrew Lloyd Webber
	.....	**.....	**.....	**.....

1 The first letter of the name of the only instrument which plays from the alto C clef
2 The second letter of the Italian word which tells a string player to pluck the string
3 The first letter of the Italian word for a persistently repeated pattern or bass line
4 The first letter of the Italian word which means to play smoothly
5 The middle letter of the word which means a three-note chord
6 The last letter of the name of the lowest sounding member of the woodwind family

	1	2	3	4	5	6
Whole word: Highest sounding string instrument
	.....	**.....	**.....	**.....	**.....	**.....